FIM MXGP/MX2/ Women's World Championships

UPDATE: 2024 Provisional calendars, 22 December

Maggiora, one of the most historic motocross tracks in the world, is set to host the MXGP of Italy on the 15th and 16th of June, for the 10th round of the 2024 MXGP series.

The Italian venue witnessed the triumphant crowing of Jorge Prado and Andrea Adamo in MXGP and MX2 in 2023. The old-school circuit of Maggiora has a rich history dating back to its inaugural event in 1966 and has been the centre stage for many spectacular races since then.

Showing its importance in motocross, the picturesque Italian track has hosted 3 Motocross of Nations and 12 events of the FIM Motocross World Championship. There's no doubt that the hilly Maggiora track will continue to deliver a fantastic show for the enjoyment of all motocross fans.
